Homework, tests, games, dances, girls, boys, clubs, assemblies, teachers, books, classrooms, desks . . . each of these and a great deal more make up our world at D.H.S. With pictures and words, the Messenger staff has strived to FOCUS upon life at Durham High School. Each student has a different concept of his high school years, and through the 1964 Messenger, we hope that these years will be preserved and cherished for many years to come.

Best of luck next year - I didn't stay in S.H. much though.
Billy

Joan,
Best of luck and good wishes for the future years - I'll miss your helpful homework papers in French II! n'est-ce pas!

DEDICATION

"Little Bo-Peep has lost her sheep . . . " We all remember these words from the Junior Talent Show of 1962, said by a man dear to each of us even before then. He came to us in the fall of 1961, bringing with him an atmosphere of informality and trust. Since then, the students at Durham High have learned to love and respect him. It is not at all unusual to see him rushing down the hall, hands full of papers, smiling and saying "Hi" to everyone he meets. At all games and school functions, there he is—cheering our team on to victory or dancing with a Senior girl all in pink and lace. His good humor and outgoing personality have gained many a smile and feeling of gratitude from both students and faculty. Still, in the face of problems, he is quick to act. By presenting directly to the students problems concerning their behavior or policy, he has shown his trust and has made the students feel a larger part of the school system. His busy schedule in school and community affairs never seems to hinder him from giving time for personal consultation. For his understanding and cheerful example to each of us, we, the Class of '64, dedicate the Messenger to Dr. Daniel F. Cagle, Principal of Durham High School.

Forward We Move to Focus on Durham High . . .

Our faculty has done much to make our school one "for the students." Besides their teaching duties, they have spent much time and effort to help the students become more aware of their places as citizens of tomorrow. Moving down the halls of D.H.S., the familiar faces of teachers appear as they hurry by, smiling a greeting of warmth and friendliness. On these, our teachers, we focus . . .

Sharing her experiences as an American Field Service Student, Mrs. Drummond stimulates an interest among the students

Dr. Cagle congratulates new inductees into the National Honor Society.

Parents get to know—and like—our teachers on PARENTS' NIGHT during American Education Week.

Classes and homework are met with "Ugh's" and "Oh No's" by the students. Still, this major part of school work is tackled and usually enjoyed. Preparing for the future, the students are offered a wide variety of courses — shorthand, chemistry, carpentry, world history. On this, our academic life, we focus . . .

Between-class meetings at lockers . . .

Let's hope it works now!!!

MAYBE . . . ? ? ? ? ?

Practice makes perfect!

Music is an important part of Durham High's curriculum. From the beautiful voices of the choirs to the sounding symbols of the band, the music groups are "tops". Hard work has enabled the band to go to the World's Fair in May and the Majorettes to win first place in the state contest, while the Concert Choir received honors. On these, the musicians, we focus . . .

WOW!

How's THAT for "500 Miles"?!

"Brownie" points don't count!

Congratulations!

"Hey, can you make it to the meeting this afternoon?" Clubs have always been busy at D.H.S., and this year has been no exception. From selling Kleenex to giving "Hootenannies", they have really been "On the ball." Students gain experience in leadership and responsibility by joining in activities. And at Durham High, there is a club for everyone — vocational, service, special interest. On these, our clubs, we focus . . .

One giant step—May I?

CLASS OF 1964

Another year — our last year — and we leave behind a stream of memories that will last us a lifetime. The 1964 Senior Class is without doubt one of the most outstanding ones to pass through the halls of D.H.S.

Robert Rhew, our lofty Senior Class President, served us fellow-classmen well with the help of Judy Atkins, our Vice-President. Gail Singletary wrote a "mile a minute" as she recorded the business of the senior-class meetings. Bill Taylor, our Treasurer, led the seniors to a financial victory as we ran away with the honors in the Budget Drive. Our worthy advisors, Mrs. Ridenhour and Mrs. Penny, were always ready and willing to help with any problems.

Fall Festival proved to be one of the most colorful and fascinating ones Durham High School had ever seen. The night before our Homecoming game, Brother Massey and Sister Rudin led our famous Rejuvenation to boost school spirit with a sermon "Ode to School Spirit" which prepared the way for a successful and spirit-filled Red and White Day. Later we swooped down upon the Wilson Cyclones as our football team, led by senior co-captains Linwood Grady and Howard Hackney, dealt those final blows which led us to victory. Halftime brought the crowning of our lovely senior Homecoming Queen, Nita Wilkinson, who reigned over the remaining Fall Festival activities. We were surely tired but proud after that week!

We "superiors" really did distinguish ourselves on Senior Day with all the senior girls in their "Sunday best" and the senior boys looking so neat and stately in their suits and ties.

Basketball season for the year '64 was a "winner". Senior Captain Wayne Mallard led our team to unlimited victories as eight out of twelve of our D.H.S. cheerleaders (all seniors) cheered the team on.

Perhaps the most important event sponsored by the Senior Class was the Senior Play — "Inherit the Wind." Sets were made, tickets were sold, publicity distributed, rehearsals staged, and then —the play—and what a success! The seniors really outdid themselves this time.

With a group of determined Seniors, the Student Council worked hard throughout the year improving D.H.S. in every form, way or manner known. A new committee was even organizied—the American Field Service Committee—and though we were unable to have a foreign student this year, plans were made to have one next year. What an unselfish class we have!

College Night found many of us discussing our problems and future plans with professors and experienced people in various occupations. This gave many of us the realization that we were soon to leave D.H.S. and go out into the world on our own.

The Junior-Senior, the measuring for caps and gowns, the ordering of calling cards and graduation announcements, the receiving of the Messenger and the last issue of the Hi-Rocket . . . all these were soon to be among our memories.

Then came graduation . . . Class Day, Graduation Night, grey robes and long tassels, small white certificates tied with white bows, solemn seniors. For a moment, we looked fondly behind us then, with diploma in hand, we march on toward newer and higher goals.

CLASS OF 1965

Juniors, Juniors everywhere . . . Somehow we Juniors manage to get into everything. This is due mainly to the fact that this year's Junior Class is the largest in D.H.S. history.

Leading our large Junior Class are first semester President, Conway Harris, and second semester President, David Moore. Along with them are our other class officers, Carolyn Tippett, Secretary, and David Newton, Treasurer, who have helped boost the Junior Class to the TOP! Working right along with our class officers is our fabulous advisor, Mr. Fred Adair, even though he doesn't dance. We not only had great class officers, but a class that put its best foot forward from beginning to end to make our Junior Class one of the best ever.

Peddling our "Hog - Tie High Point" tags with lots of school spirit and support for our team was our first way of becoming known, because who but a Junior would be begging you to "pul-leeze buy a TAG"? Our school spirit really showed as four of our Junior girls were selected to cheer for the old Red and White. The excitement of Homecoming also caused a feeling of pride as we presented Susan Council as our Junior representative. We were also proud the day we received those long awaited for class rings. At last we were really a part of D.H.S.

Our attention then turned to the Junior Talent Show where we worked hard to put on "Spotlight on New York." All of our work, midnight rehearsals, and worry paid off as Conway Harris, playing the part of a country boy, was taken on a successful trip through New York City. Not only was the show fun to put on, but it put a large bulge in our class treasury.

As we approached basketball season, the Juniors were in rare form. Nine out of our twelve basketball players were Juniors, as we had one of our best seasons ever.

"Who are you taking to the Jr.-Sr., Soph-o-more?" We proudly asked as we added the final touches, adjusted the soft lights, and awaited the hour of the prom. Lovely dresses, pressed suits, and shining faces left many lingering memories to end our wonderful Junior year at D.H.S. and to hopefully await the next.

CLASS OF 1966

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As our first year at D.H.S. draws to a close, we as Sophomores can look back in this year with fond memories.

Our excitement of our first games, fall festival, our own homecoming representative, Janet Jones, and Orientation week when we were welcomed at assemblies with the hiss of "ssssophomore" and kindly shoved toward the "nearest elevator" by the upper classmen, were all a part of our first few weeks at D.H.S. Election of our class officers—Buddy Smith, president, Bobby Tyndall, vice-president, Kathy Davenport, secretary, and Betsy Bugg, treasurer, was a rewarding experience. And how could we forget our own soph sock-hop, all the other sock-hops, the Christmas dance, and the sophomore dance; the participation of the sophs in the Junior Talent Show and in the renewal of our spirit in the D.H.S. during Pep Week, the Rejuvenation, and Love Week? Our pride in the thrilling display of our sports teams could not be equaled. After seeing our canine friend, Buddy Smith in the dog house, after the budget drive, we became determined to be victors next year. Accepting the teasing comments of, "Hey Soph, what are you wearing to the Junior-Senior?" were all part of the fun.

Now that this year has drawn to a close, we look forward to our promising next two years at D.H.S. with great anticipation, but this first year will always linger in our hearts and minds.

This year's Hi Rocket activity was full of surprises. Will we have enough advertising?— gee, kids, we've got a bit too much . . . Mr. Bell, can you print it by Friday?— Can I print it by WHEN?— Hmmmm, I wonder if we will get any reaction to this editorial— RUN!

Aside from little problems that cropped up every once in a while, the Hi-Rocket and its staff had one of the best years in its forty-six. Last June we explained our "bushel basket" style makeup to an exasperated lady in Chapel Hill at the Press Institute. Then we tried our hand at putting out a newspaper for the first day of school. It was three days late, but all ours! Twelve issues later we're nine months older and a lot wiser. Everything has to be done yesterday, but it isn't done

'til tomorrow. "Copy, copy, who's done any copy?" "Pictures? Of what?" "Uh, I hate to be a spoil sport, but we have four pages of ads . . . too many!" "Any editorial ideas? No, we can't risk a law suit."

In March it was on to New York for the Columbia Scholastic Press Association convention at Columbia University. In April the Quill and Scroll Banquet . . . and the responsibilities of this year's staff were passed on to the new one.

This year's staff, mostly seniors, can leave DHS filled with pride and nostalgia for their three years of service to the Durham High School community.
